

Volume 28, Issue 52Conference Announcement*Behavioral Economics and Neoclassical Economics: Continuity or Discontinuity?

Location : Great Barrington, MA

Organizers : Elias L. Khalil

Major Topics : Behavioral Economics and Neoclassical Economics

Conference Dates : 7/26/2002 to 7/26/2002

Submission Deadline : 5/1/2002

Send Submissions To : Behavioral Research Council A Division of American Institute for Economic Research PO Box
1000 Great Barrington, MA 01230-1000

Sponsoring Organizations : American Institute for Economic Research

For further information contact :

Web Page : <http://www.brc-aier.org>

Call for papers. The Behavioral Research Council (www.brc-aier.org, a division of the American Institute for Economic Research) is sponsoring an international conference on "Behavioral Economics and Neoclassical Economics: Continuity or Discontinuity?" The conference will be held in late July in Great Barrington, a small town in the Berkshire Hills of Western Mass. The conference consists of invited sessions and contributed/concurrent sessions. To attend, you need to apply by June 1st (visit www.brc-aier.org). To present a paper, besides applying, you need to send a letter (by May 1st), an abstract, and vitae, to Elias Khalil, elk@aier.org, or by regular mail to BRC, PO Box 1000, Division Street, Great Barrington, MA 01230. The paper should be submitted by June 20th.