Announcement and Call for Papers The 2004 Canadian Economic Theory Conference will be held on May 7-9 at McGill University which is located in downtown Montreal. David Levine (UCLA) and Philip Reny (University of Chicago) will give invited lectures. Prospective contributors are invited to send a copy of the paper to the organizing committee. The deadline for submissions is March 15, 2004. If a full paper is not available by that date, an extended abstract may be submitted instead. Priority will be given to submissions consisting of the complete paper. We strongly encourage electronic submissions which should be e-mailed to peter.harrison@mail.mcgill.ca. Alternatively, you can mail a hard copy to the address below. Receipt of submissions will be acknowledged electronically. A preliminary program will be available by March 31, 2004. Information on the conference details and logistics shall be available soon. CETC mailing list can be found at: <http://manitas.economics.utoronto.ca/cgi-bin/mailman/listinfo/cetc>. We look forward to seeing you in Montreal. Nurlan Turdaliev and Licun Xue Local organizers
