The 2007 Annual Meeting of the Society for Economic Research on Copyright Issues (SERCI) is scheduled to be held in Berlin (Germany) on July 12-13 of 2007. The local organiser is Christian Handke (Humboldt University). The Guest Speaker at the congress will be Prof. Richard Lipsey (Simon Fraser University). Submissions are invited on any topic (both theoretical and empirical) that uses economic theory to analyse any aspect of copyright management (optimal copyright law and alternatives, causes and effects of copyright infringement, efficient management of information goods in general, digital rights management, economic foundations of copyright, economic analysis of copyright collectives, etc.). Detailed abstracts of submissions should be sent as an e-mail attachment to richard@serci.org before 15th of March 2007. Successful authors will be notified by the end of March 2007. A selection of the papers from the congress will be published in the international, peer reviewed journal the Review of Economic Research on Copyright Issues. More information is available on <http://www.serci.org>.
