The conference organizers are Walter Bossert, Michel Poitevin, and Yves Sprumont. Those wishing to present should send a copy of the paper to Walter Bossert. The deadline for submissions is March 1, 2001. If a full paper is not available by that date, an extended abstract may be submitted instead. However, priority will be given to submissions consisting of the complete paper. We strongly encourage electronic submissions. Files in the following formats are accepted: PDF, Postscript, Word, DVI. Electronic submissions should be e-mailed to Walter.Bossert@umontreal.ca Those unable to submit electronically may send a hard copy to Walter Bossert Departement de Sciences Economiques Universite de Montreal C.P. 6128, Succursale Centre-ville Montreal QC H3C 3J7 Canada Please ensure that the paper is received by the above deadline. Receipt of submissions will be acknowledged electronically. A preliminary program will be available by the end of March 2001. Please forward this message to anyone who may be interested in attending but may not be on our mailing list. In particular, please notify interested graduate students of the conference. Some funds to provide (partial) support for travel expenses may be available on a needs basis for graduate students and junior faculty. If you would like to be considered for funding, please let us know when you submit your paper. Information regarding local arrangements and registration will follow in due course. We hope to see you in Montreal next June. Walter Bossert, Michel Poitevin, and Yves Sprumont
