Topics Any applied business or economics-related research manuscript or teaching-related manuscript or case is welcome. How to submit a paper Submit a paper or an abstract/proposal for a paper along with a cover letter or registration form to ABR Conference, PO Box 620760, Littleton, CO 80162 USA or email to cluter@wapress.com by December 31, 2002. The overnight address is ABR Conference, 7068 West Nova Drive, Littleton, CO 80128 USA. The cover letter must include: Each author's name and e-mail address (Please specify a contact author.) Institutional affiliation, including academic department Complete mailing address and email address Paper title Subject area (This will assist us in grouping papers.) The format of the paper is not important at this point. The final version, diskette, and conference fee must be received by January 31, 2003. See reverse side for other important dates. Final Paper Format The final submission must be in hard copy and fit on a 3 1/2 inch IBM compatible diskette in MS Word. The paper must be single-spaced, printed at 10 points with 1 inch margins in any Times font on standard 8 1/2 x 11 paper, and not exceed fifteen pages in length. Papers exceeding fifteen pages will be assessed a $10 fee for each page over the limit. In general, the paper must be submitted in the form in which you want it to appear in the proceedings. Hence, tables must be placed where you want them to appear. A sample first page of the proceedings and further instructions will be included with the letter of acceptance. Conference fees The 2003 International ABR Conference has a registration fee of $295 per person. All attending conference participants must pay the registration fee and at least one author per paper must attend. The fee for each additional paper presented is $100. Additional copies of the conference program and proceeding will be available for $25. Paying the registration fee entitles authors to give a 15 to 20-minute presentation per paper, admission to all presentations and workshops, and a copy of the conference program and proceedings. The conference fee must be received by January 31, 2003 to assure conference participation. Please contact us in advance if the conference fee will be late, so we can plan for your attendance. There is a $50 minimum cancellation fee on cancellations received prior to March 1, 2003. There is no refund on cancellations received after February 28, 2003. Registration fees may be transferred to another person without penalty at any time.
